

China's Major-Country Diplomacy in the New Era

Abstract

The world today is undergoing profound changes unseen in a century. China has never been closer to the centre of the world stage. What will be the impact of China's development on the world? How would China conduct its diplomacy to create more enabling conditions for the great renewal of the Chinese nation? And how would China make more contribution to world peace and human progress through diplomacy? In this lecture, Commissioner Xie will elaborate on the contents as well as practice of China's major-country diplomacy, and envision the prospects of China's endeavor to build a community of shared future of mankind.
