

Concurrent Session 1

Lessons Learned: From Principles to Practice – A Territory-wide Recovery-oriented Movement in Mental Health Occupational Therapy

Ms. Mayie Tsang

Senior Occupational Therapist
Castle Peak Hospital

Biography

Ms. Mayie Tsang is a Senior Occupational Therapist working in Castle Peak Hospital. She has obtained her Mphil in Rehabilitation Sciences since 2012. She is the core member of the Committee on Recovery-Oriented Service and Quality Improvement in NTWC Psychiatric Services since 2011. She has managed some recovery projects included proposed ten recovery principles to guide the development of Recovery-oriented practice in CPH, development of OT recovery service framework and a research namely, “Attitude towards and Knowledge on Recovery in Chinese Mental Health Professionals”. She has several publications about pathway to mental health recovery and recovery-oriented service in psychiatric OT service in HK.